

Catherine Kessedjian is Professor Emerita of the University Panthéon-Assas Paris II. She acts as arbitrator in a selected number of International Commercial and Investment Disputes. She also acts as mediator in French and English including in Business and Human Rights disputes.

She is a member of numerous professional organizations, notably the American Law Institute (ALI) and the Institut de droit international.

She is the Honorary President of the French Branch of the International Law Association and Vice Chair of the global ILA. She is the President of the Organizing Committee for ILA 2023.