

ARBITRATION IN THE GREATER CHINA REGION :

A COMPARATIVE ANALYSIS WITH FRENCH LAW AND THE EXAMPLE OF MARITIME DISPUTES.

Tuesday 15 June 2021 - 10 AM-12 PM (Paris) / 4 PM-6 PM (Shanghai, Hong Kong, Taipei)

Training content

1. Introduction & moderation

Joséphine Hage Chahine, registered lawyer at the Paris and Beirut bars, lecturer at Sorbonne University.

2. An example of institutional arbitration : the chinese arbitration association (Taipei) v/s the maritime chamber of arbitration of Paris

Houchih Kuo, senior counsel of Kuo & Kuo Attorneys-at-Law, former head of international arbitration of the CAA.

Philippe Delebecque, professor of laws (Sorbonne University), president of the maritime chamber of arbitration of Paris.

3. Maritime cross-border disputes : is arbitration suitable ?

Béatrice Favarel, Favarel & Associés, founding partner, registered lawyer at the Paris and Marseille bars, president of the maritime commission of the Société de législation comparée.

Jing Qiao, Wang Jing & Co, partner, registered lawyer in P.R China.

4. Arbitration in France v/s arbitration in Greater-China : major differences, similarities and crossing influences

Franck Desevedavy, Asiallians, partner, admitted in Paris, Hongkong & Taipei.

Bingen Amezaga, DS Avocats, counsel, registered lawyer at the Paris, Madrid and Caracas bars.

Olivier Monange, DS Avocat, partner, registered lawyer at the Paris bar.

5. Q & A session

Purpose of the webinar	Methodology	Targeted audience	Level 2	Learning material
This webinar aims, from a comparative law standpoint, at highlighting the similarities and differences between the French principles and the principles applicable in the greater-china's main jurisdictions, as regards arbitration and the adjudication of maritime disputes.	This webinar will consist in several theoretical presentations on technical matters, combined with concrete examples and feedback on the practitioners' personal experience. The webinar is conceived to be interactive, namely through a Q&A session. The platform "bluejeans" will be used to this end.	Lawyers.	Technical and practical enhancement of knowledge in the related field.	A teaching support document will be communicated at the end of the webinar.
		Requirements	Spécialization	Assesment
		This webinar is addressed to bilingual lawyer.	International law / transport law.	An evaluation sheet will be shared after the webinar in order to collect the participants feedback.

Information and registration : click here

Cost : the costs will be taken in charge collectively / FIF-PL (for french lawyers).